Transmittal Numbers 69 through 74 for the Internal Revenue Service Looseleaf Regulations System, Service Number 1, Income Tax, T 22.19/3:1/976/trans.(no.), Item No. 961, are in the process of being printed for selecting depositories. CONGRESSIONAL HEARINGS AND COMMITTEE PRINTS IN MICROFICHE

On shipping list 14,983, October 6, 1980, we mailed Survey 80-61A. The purpose of this survey is to elicit libraries' item selection preferences for Congressional committee hearings and prints in either paper copy or microfiche. If you do not receive this survey please call (703) 557-9013.

Libraries must respond to this survey by returning the appropriate item cards by November 14, 1980. This closing date is necessary in order to allow time for the economic analysis which must precede the meeting of the Micropublishing Council. The SURVEY 80-61A item numbers will become effective with the publications of the 97th Congress. The survey selection cards do not have printed blocks for marking depository designation. You must indicate your depository library number in the lower right hand corner for each of your item selections.

QUARTERLY SELECTION UPDATE

The computer printouts of item selections, dated October 1980, were mailed to each depository library on October 10, 1980. This list should reflect all changes that were marked on the April 1980 printout that your library returned to this office. The printout must be returned before November 28, 1980.

If your library has not received the October 1980 computer printouts, please telephone (703) 557-9026 or 557-9013.

CORRECTION TO JUNE 1980 LIST OF CLASSES

We have discovered that E 3.19/2: is a title change of E 3.19: and is still being issued semiannually. Because only one publication was classed under the E 3.19: class it was decided to maintain the latter class, E 3.19/2: and discontinue E 3.19:

OCLC SURVEY

About October 15, 1980, you will receive through a GPO mailing an OCLC Survey. This survey will address the question of OCLC providing "automatic cataloging" of Federal documents for depository libraries at the time that GPO catalogs an item in the OCLC On-Line Union Catalog.

Comments to date seem to indicate that depository libraries are interested in supporting this project. However, to continue investigation of this proposal, OCLC requires answers to several questions.

Please be prepared to respond to this questionnaire in a timely manner.
